Action Taken Report

Teaching and Curriculum from Students

From the Feedback analysis of the Academic Year 2020-21, it was analyzed that extra-curricular activities and research projects were lessened due to the COVID-19 restrictions. The college also decided to reduce registration fees for the students of Modern Law College for webinars/workshops conducted by the college. To improve students' area of research, the college also decided to encourage students in writing free college blogs, articles in magazines, and research articles in Webinars.

Teaching and Curriculum from Alumni

From the Feedback analysis of the Academic Year 2020-21, it was analyzed that the syllabus is not of industrial standards. The college has its limitations in altering the syllabus as the syllabus is prescribed by Savitribai Phule Pune University, the college initiated a certificate course in Insurance Law, to keep the course relevant and updated, the course was conducted by employees, consultants of Insurance Company; legal practitioners, and advocates.

Subject : Your Suggestions / Objections with respect to Review of Existing Syllabus (2017 Pattern) of Undergraduate Degree Courses of Law

Dear Sir / Madam,

You are aware that the Revised Curriculum i.e. 2017 Pattern of undergraduate degree courses of law (B.A. LL.B., B.B.A. LL.B. and LL.B.) was implemented by this University w.e.f. the academic year 2017-18. The Board of Studies in Law was willing to review the said Revised Curriculum. To review the said curriculum the Board of Studies in Law has conducted eight meetings and finally in its meeting held on 15.06.2019 adopted one draft of revised curriculum with changes / modifications made in it. The draft of proposed curriculum with changes / modifications made in it was circulated to all Principals of Law Colleges affiliated to this University and Teachers working in those Law Colleges for suggestions / objections.

The Board of Studies in Law has received suggestions / objections from 2 principals and 32 teachers. The Board of Studies in Law in its meeting held on 29.06.2019 discussed in detail those suggestions / objections and accordingly few changes / modifications were made in the said proposed draft. The Board of Studies in law in the same meeting unanimously approved the revised curriculum with changes / modifications made in it and recommended to the Faculty of Humanities to approve it and recommend to the Academic Council for approval.

I really appreciate the efforts you have put in the work of Reviewing of Existing Syllabus (2017 Pattern) of Undergraduate Degree Courses of Law. I extend my thanks to you for giving your suggestions / objections with respect to the syllabus of - (a) CE 0301 Legal Language and Legal Reasoning, and (a) CE 0401 Law and Literature.

Yours Faithfully,

Dr. Sopan Ramakrishna Ivare

Suggestions for the 2017 pattern English

Amal Varghese <dd4power@gmail.com> Sat, Jan 12, 2019 at 5:03 PM
To: ivaresr@hotmail.com
Bcc: iqac.modernlaw@gmail.com

Respected BoS Chairman,

This is with respect to the implementation of the new syllabus for B.A. LL.B. i.e. the revised 2017 pattern. Here, I would like to speak about the subject of English, i.e. General English, English for Law, Legal Language and Legal Reasoning and Law and Literature.

The first two semesters of English are very well organised, but Legal Language and Legal Reasoning seems unclear with respect to teaching technique that can be used by an English teacher.

In my humble opinion, the Legal Reasoning part of the syllabus should not fall under the subject of English because it more related to logic and reasoning.

The topics listed under module 5 seem incomplete. Most of the topics are directly linked to one or two specific prescribed books in the syllabus. Hence, unavailability of books are causing inconvenience in preparation of lucid lesson plans to be delivered in class.

In the subject of Law and Literature, some of the literary texts which have been prescribed are not available.

Kindly, do the needful as soon as possible.

Regards,
Amal Varghese

Respected BOS chairman,
This mail is regarding the new portion implemented from the year 2017 onwards for BA.LLB. The mail is about the subject of Law and Economics (Economics) for the 2nd year 4th sem. in this semester the portion is about the relation between law and economics and the study of welfare economics along with that. The problem that is happening while conducting the portion is that various background concepts required for further explanation of theories are not explicitly mentioned in the portion. It would have helped if some topics would have been more precise and clear like for eg. In the module 2 which is 'Fundamentals of Economic Analysis of Law' subtopic 'Theories of Wages and Exploition of Labour' it is not clear which theories of wages are to be covered. Suggested reference books by the University are written by foreign authors and hence there is a problem of their availability. If the reference books would have been written by Indian authors then this problem would not have happened.
Thank you.

Regards,
Akshay Ugale
